

Putting Children and Young People at the Heart of Planning

The views of Adults

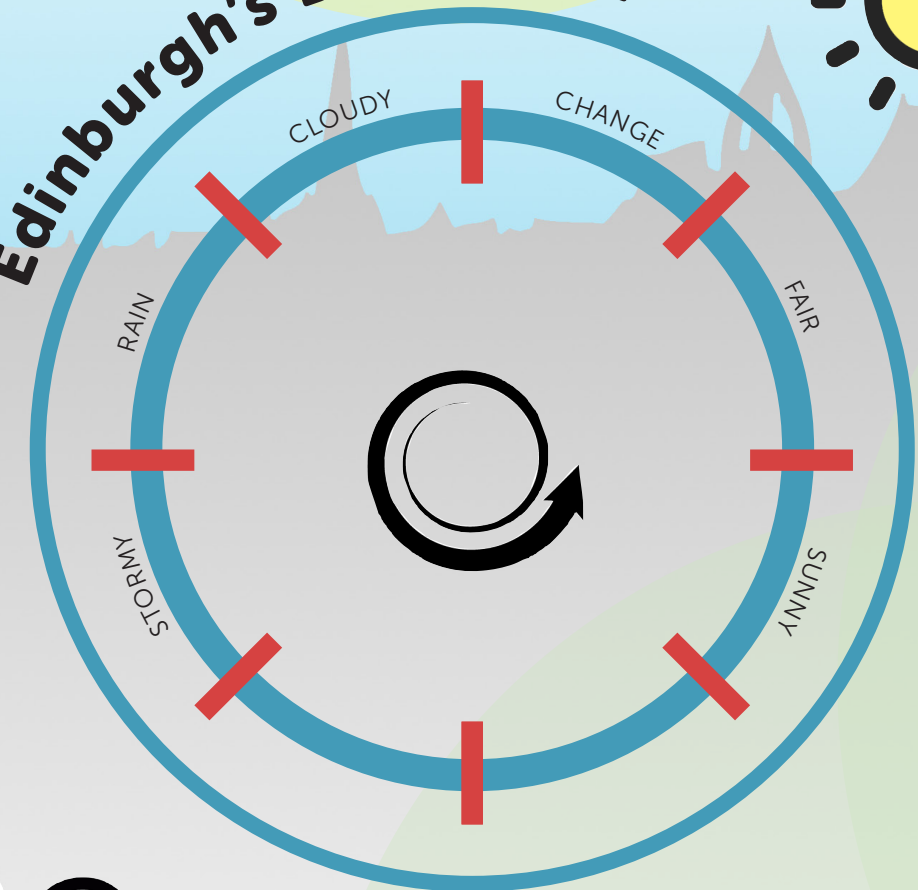

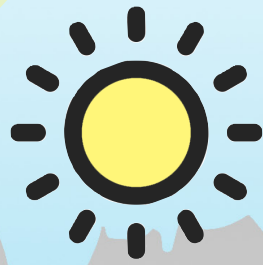

Green Spaces and Parks Vibrant / Buzzing

Transport
By the sea, close to the countryside
Beautiful city
Bars and restaurants
Tourism and visitors
European
Vibrant 3rd sector
Friendly people
Sporting facilities
Libraries
Good reputation
Jobs

Architecture + Heritage Music, Arts and Culture

Festivals
Diversity
Being the capital city
Good schools and nurseries
Airport
Good hospitals and healthcare
Universities
Not too big or too small
Educated workforce
Independent cinemas
Shops
Children

Edinburgh's Barometer

Unequal opportunities Poor people and communities stigmatised

Homelessness / Rough sleepers
Housing is expensive to buy or rent
Parking / traffic wardens
Educational inequality
Could be friendlier
Snobbery and private schools
Agencies not working together
Too much geared toward tourism
Lack of independent small shops and cafes
Rising population
Commercialisation of spaces
Drinking

Inequality

Poverty

Rubbish/litter

Traffic

Roadworks / potholes

Attractions are expensive

Bad for cyclists

Drug issues

Trams

Poor quality housing for some

Relationship between council and people

Dog poo

Not enough support at school

Princes Street

Graffiti